

Tyler J. Schroeder
Senior Manager
State & Local Government Operations

Tyler Schroeder serves as senior manager for government operations for The Boeing Company and is based in San Antonio, Texas. In this role, he represents Boeing's legislative interests at the state capitol and manages legislative policy for Boeing sites and subsidiaries across the states of Texas, New Mexico, Nebraska, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. He also oversees government and external affairs for Boeing San Antonio, including business affairs, community engagement and economic development strategy.

Prior to joining Boeing in 2016, Tyler served as an international financial analyst and federal government relations specialist for Air Tractor, Inc. in North Texas. Tyler led Air Tractor's government relations effort on a number of small business and federal issues and helped manage Air Tractor's extensive export financing program.

Tyler serves as Chair of the Dee Howard Foundation, Chair of the Alamo Area Academies, Chair of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce Education and Workforce Development Council, and Vice President of the Board of the Central Texas Regional Water Supply Corporation. He is a past chair of the Texas Defense Aerospace & Aviation Alliance; past chair of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce Aerospace Committee; and currently serves on the Boards of Directors of the Texas Association of Manufacturers, Texas Taxpayers and Research Association, Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, and the San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. He has also served on various education and workforce initiatives including the City of San Antonio's Workforce & Education Recovery Leadership team and as a tri-chair of the Alamo STEM Ecosystem.

Tyler holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas, and currently resides in San Antonio with his wife, Lauren, 2-year-old daughter, and 1-year old son.
